There is no limit to the number of abstracts that may be submitted by an individual, however the technical committee reserves the right to limit oral presentations to a maximum of two per person. All presenters must be registered for the congress by the time of full paper submission.

It is the authors' responsibility to ensure their abstract satisfies these guidelines, and the Organising Committee reserves the right to reject an abstract if it does not do so. The abstract must be written in English and submitted through the online abstract submission site. Emailed submissions will not be accepted. The abstract should give a clear synopsis of the proposed content of the full paper.

Each abstract will be reviewed by the Committee before inviting the authors to submit the full paper. The proceedings will also be published in the Engineers Australia Informit database. The abstract, including the paper title, authors, affiliations, and keywords are also to be uploaded through the online abstract submission page.
